Mixed Media Monday

A thought provoking class, where students learn how to use different mediums to create contemporary art pieces. Mixed Media Monday is a fun and inventive class, a time for students to explore while discovering how to use paper, fabric, recycled materials, mark making, stencils, pastels, and more, together with paint to create your next masterpiece! Great class for creative thinking, whether you're a representational or abstract painter.

Supplies:

papers: printed, text, script, floral, plain, colors, textures, wall paper, tissue paper, corrugated cardboard, deli paper, magazine images text, ephemera…

paints: acrylic paints, fluid, heavy body...your preference of type and color palette mediums: soft gel medium, liquid medium, modeling paste, glazing liquid gesso: white (black if you have it) brushes: to apply mediums & paint / color shapers, credit card, chip brush, sand paper: 100 / 120 grit to add texture (Home Depot)

drywall tape: to add texture (Home Depot)

hand sanitizer: for removing paint mark making tools: bamboo skewers, bubble wrap, stencils, corrugated cardboard, whatever you have to make a mark substrate: 16x20 canvas's (or as large as you're comfortable with), birch board or water color paper primed with gesso hands: don't be afraid to use your fingers

Optional: gelli mono printing plate, stencils, stamps